

AT&T Pioneers

Code-of-Conduct

The AT&T Pioneers Code-of-Conduct is designed to avoid situations that could compromise the integrity, reputation or public confidence in our organization

- ✚ Secure the User Name and Password and do not share
- ✚ Disclosing Confidential or Proprietary Information is strictly prohibited
- ✚ DO NOT USE Copyrighted Material
- ✚ No Copyright infringements
- ✚ DO NOT USE Company Logos without Written Permission
Written Permission must be obtained prior to adding other Company logos to the website. A copy of the Written Permission must be kept on file with the Chapter Manager, Chapter President and with the AT&T Pioneers Region Web Administrator.
- ✚ AT&T Employees will abide by the AT&T Business Code of Conduct
- ✚ Retirees and non-employees will abide by the same rules as employees
This includes but is not limited too; Common Sense and all listed items in the AT&T Pioneers Code-of-Conduct
- ✚ Follow the AT&T Pioneers Branding Guidelines --- the Guidelines can be found on the Branding Page of the AT&T Pioneers website
- ✚ The attpioneervolunteers.org website is strictly for AT&T Pioneers business only.
Some examples are, but not limited too; Selling of personal items and advertising for employment.
- ✚ Use our correct name --- AT&T Pioneers or the AT&T Pioneers – A Volunteer Network
Use AT&T Pioneers [Chapter Name]
- ✚ We are not the Telephone Pioneers of America or the TelecomPioneers
- ✚ Know and understand the Website Restrictions as set forth in the WebMaster instructions

An AT&T Pioneers WebMaster who is not in compliance with the AT&T Pioneers Code-of-Conduct will have their publishing privileges revoked